TIVUA ISLAND DAY CRUISE

This is free for all delegates registered for INQAAHE.

The Mandatory forms sent to all delegates on Friday 13th May would be the confirmed numbers and bookings we will take on the Wednesday 25th May.

If your spouse is attending, this should be paid at the Registration desk on Sun 22nd and or Mon 23rd May.

Tivua Island: Where warm waters, acres of coral gardens, and soft white beaches await. This day cruise afloat a magnificent tall ship, “Spirit of the Pacific”, combines sailing through crystal-clear seas to a Fijian island with buffet lunch spreads and plenty of activities too—just don’t forget your sunscreen.

Head for Denarau Marina, board the historic beauty “Spirit of the Pacific”, and set sail for Tivua Island. Enjoy your morning tea as the anchor is pulled up, and the captain steers you toward the open sea. Upon arrival on the island, receive a warm greeting and sip kava among the locals—all part of an ancient welcome ceremony.

From here, spend the day exactly how you please. Catch a ride over 500 acres of coral gardens, and peer down through your glass-bottomed boat at centuries of colorful reefs. Should a particular patch of anemones require a closer inspection, simply dive off the edge and snorkel in for a personal introduction.

For lunch, feast on a buffet spread of fresh fruit, local specialties, and refreshing beverages. Post-refuel, tackle some traditional Fijian crafts, canoe, play volleyball, or simply sprawl out on a hammock. Wind down with a cup of afternoon tea, before your evening sail back to the marina.
