

Dr. Gominda Ponnampereuma

Subject: Medicine

Dr. Gominda Ponnampereuma

MBBS (Colombo), Dip. Psychology (Colombo), MMed (Dundee), PhD (Dundee)

Senior Lecturer in Medical Education

Head of Department of Medical Education, Faculty of Medicine, University of Colombo

Head, Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Faculty of Medicine, University of Colombo

Dr. Gominda Ponnampereuma has served as an invited speaker cum resource person in many international symposia and conferences. Author of several journal articles and books, he sits on the editorial boards of two international medical education journals. He is a postgraduate tutor, examiner, and resource material developer for national and international medical education courses. Dr. Gominda has served as an advisor, visiting professor, consultant and fellow in several academic institutes and educational projects. He is a founder co-chair of the Asia Pacific Medical Education Network (APME-Net). He also served as the Human Resources Manager and Consultant for short term training of the Higher Education for Twenty first Century (HETC) Project, and is currently a member the Standing Committee on Accreditation and Quality Assurance (SCAQA) of the Ministry of Higher Education and the Standing Committee on Quality Assurance in the UGC. His research interests are on assessment (including selection for training), and curriculum development and evaluation.

Dr. Gominda Ponnampereuma

MBBS (Colombo), Dip. Psychology (Colombo), MMed (Dundee), PhD (Dundee)