

Profile: Dr. Athambawa Jahfer

Dr. Athambawa Jahfer is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Accountancy and Finance of Faculty of Management and Commerce, South Eastern University of Sri Lanka, Sri Lanka. He has been teaching Financial Management, Investment Valuation, Quantitative Techniques in Management, Accounting etc. since 1997. His research interest includes financial market development, capital market, investor behaviour, capital market efficiency, and monetary economics.

He is a graduate of Bachelor of Commerce with second class (upper division) from the University of Colombo in 1997. He earned his Master's degree (M.Sc.) in Management in 2002 from the University of Sri Jayewardenepura. And in 2006, he received his doctoral degree (PhD) in Business Administration from Yokohama National University, Japan.

Dr. Jahfer is a recipient of Japanese Government Postgraduate Research Scholarship (MONBUKAGAKUSHO) in 2002. Also, he was awarded Japan Foundation Japanese Studies Fellowship for research during June 2012 to May 2013 at the Yokohama National University.

Dr. Jahfer is currently serving as a Coordinator for Postgraduate Unit of Faculty of Management and Commerce, South Eastern University of Sri Lanka. He was formerly the Head of Department of Accountancy and Finance and Director of Staff Development Center, Chairman of Internal Quality Assurance Unit of South Eastern University of Sri Lanka. And also he has contributed to the Quality Assurance and Accreditation Council of University Grants Commission as a member/ chairman of the review panels for Subject review under IRQUE and HETC projects.

He has published several articles in reputed national as well as international indexed journals and also he has presented papers in the national and international conferences. He also reviewed many research articles published by reputed international journals.