

Dr. M.I.M. Jazeel

Summary of Profile

Dr. M.I.M. Jazeel is a senior lecturer Gr. I in the Department of Islamic Studies of Faculty of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language at South Eastern University of Sri Lanka. He holds a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) Second Upper (1997) and Master of Arts (2003) from University of Peradeniya. He obtained his doctorate degree (Ph.D.) in leadership studies from the National University of Malaysia (UKM) in 2010. In addition, he followed professional courses in order to sharpen his knowledge of the field and for the advancement in his career. He has a considerable teaching and research experience spanning nearly twenty years. He has been teaching courses on Islamic Thought and Civilization. He also supervise students undertaking the postgraduate studies.

Jazeel researches in the area falls predominantly within the role of Islam and Muslim's contribution in the national development. He is a book-author and he published a number of articles and research papers in the internationally reputed and indexed journals. He presented his works and papers in national and international academic conferences. He edited and co-edited the proceedings published by the faculty and the university. He also served as a reviewer of the manuscripts for the journals and international symposiums.

At present, Jazeel is the director of the Staff Development Centre, South Eastern University of Sri Lanka. Previously, he has held many academic administrative posts as head of the Department of Islamic Studies, Coordinator for postgraduate programme of the faculty etc. He contributed to the institutional development of the university as chairman or member of the committees and sub-committees including Internal Quality Assurance Centre and Curriculum Development Committee. Moreover, he involves in the community and national development programmes.