

Dr. Mrs. Annista Wijayanayake is a Senior Lecturer at the Department of Industrial Management, University of Kelaniya. She graduated with a first class honours majoring Industrial Management at the University of Kelaniya. She has a broad background in the area of operations research, financial engineering and statistics with M.Eng and D.Eng in Industrial Engineering from Tokyo Institute of Technology - Japan.

She had received the academic excellence award offered by Tokyu Foundation-Japan for Inbound Student for her exceptional performance during her postgraduate studies. She had also served as a visiting scholar at Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT) and at Central Queensland University Australia. She had been serving as an academic advisor for the B. Sc. MIT Degree Programme for eight years. Currently she is serving as a member of the Sports Advisory Board and a Senior Counsellor at Kalana Mithuru Counselling Unit at University of Kelaniya. She also, served as the grant coordinator for the HETC QIG project for the BSC MIT degree programme.

Her research interests include: statistics, system optimization portfolio optimization, and project management. Other areas of research interest focus on gender studies, women and gender. Her research has been featured in prestigious journals such as Mathematical Programming, International Journal of Theoretical and applied Finance, Journal of Global Optimization and in many International Conference Proceedings.